

JULY 2015 Mt. Hood Republican Women Updates

The Oregon Republican Party State Central Committee met on Saturday June 27th in Salem to discuss and adopt a process for selecting delegates to the Republican National Convention to select our nominee for President in 2016. In addition to that, the party unanimously adopted a resolution affirming their commitment to answerability and openness for all Oregonians. <http://www.salem-keizersentinel.com/oregon-republican-party-leads-oregon-towards-state-government-transparency-ratifies-resolution-in-salem-making-transparency-a-priority/#.VY-CLlx7Z5U.facebook>

The Republican Party was honored to have Sheriff Joe Arpaio of Maricopa County, Arizona as the Keynote speaker at a rally on the steps of the Oregon State Capitol on Saturday June 27th. He spoke of his years in law enforcement. He highlighted the drug problem that is coming across the United States border. He even marched across the street to meet with the hundreds of protesters who greeted him with the usual diatribes. He stated the need for leadership at the State and Federal level. Sheriff Joe said talking about an issue is not a solution to the growing number of problems that our States are facing. He told the story of how the famous pink underwear came to be. He spoke of his love of our nation and how glad he is to be in the greatest country in the world. Our associate member Kevin Moss got an opportunity to spend time with the Sheriff and talk with him at length about the issues facing both law enforcement and our elected leaders.
