

Mt. Hood Republican Woman August 2015 Updates

As we won't be publishing in our regular newsletter format this month, these are a few items of interest and dates to make note of for all our Mt. Hood Republican friends.

Our next scheduled regular meeting of the Mt. Hood Republican Women will be on September 9, 2015 with Clackamas County Commissioner, Chairman John Ludlow as speaker. He'll share the latest Tri-County information regarding our roads, taxes and economic growth. How well do the three main counties (Washington, Clackamas & Multnomah) work together? All this and more at our September 9th meeting at Francis Xavier's Restaurant.

There will be NO Executive Club Meeting - Wednesday – August 5.
The next scheduled meeting will be Wednesday, September 2nd at the Airport Shilo Inn. Everyone should have a lot of information to share regarding the upcoming Presidential Debate for this “not to be missed” meeting in September. Always the latest information from Vancouver to Medford and everywhere in between.

Remember we are all members of the Jeffersonian Society of active citizens working to support our Constitution. Long live the late Don McIntire's vision.

A reminder of our Summer Community Service Project of gathering Children's books for the Pregnancy Resource Centers. Visit a church rummage sale, your neighborhood garage sale, and always Dollar Tree Stores, Salvation Army and Goodwill Stores for your contribution to this worthwhile endeavor.

A lunch at Francis Xavier's will be awarded the winner.

Stay Cool; remember a blizzard is when it snows sideways! Snow sounds good during these 100+ days.

Government's view of the economy could be summed up in a few short phrases: If it moves, tax it. If it keeps moving, regulate it. And if it stops moving, subsidize it.
